Silent Auction Donations

Our Black Tie & Blue Jeans silent auction is one of the most exciting parts of the evening – and it plays a vital role in raising funds that directly support educators and students. A strong auction brings energy to the event and helps funds go further for programs like LIFT, GROW, THRIVE, Erase the Need, Winter Break Bonus, and more.

We need your help!

Silent auction success depends on generous donations from local businesses, community groups, and supporters like you. When you contribute an item or basket, you help create experiences and treasures that our guests love to bid on – while also showcasing your business in front of hundreds of community members.

Why silent auction items matter:

They create excitement and friendly competition among guests.

Themed packages tell a story and appeal to a wide range of interests.

Unique, high-value items often generate the highest bids.

Please consider donating to our silent auction – either a curated gift basket or an auction-ready item. All donations will be prominently featured at the event and are a wonderful way to connect your brand with a community-minded cause.
